General Presentation Skills

	Practice	Avoid
Gestures - using head, arms, or facial expressions	Gestures to express importance/care: ✓ up and down head motion to assure or affirm audience shares ✓ point out key terms/words on screen or board Gestures to indicate 2 possibilities: ✓ move hands back and forth Facial expressions should be: ✓ neutral ✓ natural ✓ friendly	Limit: * excessive arm and hand movements * constant motion * arms crossed in front of chest Facial expressions: * staring at people/opening eyes wide * squinting eyes * knitting eyebrows
Movement - within the room	Moving to a different spot in the room can be helpful to indicate a change of focus or keep the audience's attention. ✓ Move forward to emphasize ✓ Move to one side to indicate a transition	Limit: Swaying back and forth like a pendulum Back turned to the audience Pacing constantly Bouncing on the balls of your feet
Posture or body position	✓ Stand straight but relaxed	Slouching or leaning overVery straight, stiff body position
Demeanor - behavior towards others	 ✓ Speak in a friendly, warm tone ✓ Smile ✓ Respond to questions neutrally in a non-judgmental manner 	 Flat or "frozen" expression Short/abrasive answers Ignoring comments or questions
Eye contact	 ✓ Keeping eye contact with audience is important to keep their attention and demonstrate interest ✓ Scan the room often to include all participants 	 Looking at notes frequently or reading notes for extended periods of time Looking at screen, board, or floor Staring or looking blankly into people's eyes
Tone of Voice	 ✓ Tone of voice is important to indicate importance, meaning, and create atmosphere (using volume, inflection, and articulation) ✓ When appropriate use humor 	 Monotonous, flat voice Very quiet voice or low tone Very loud, high pitch Aggressive or abrasive tone
Articulation	✓ Clearly pronounce and enunciate words	 Slurring words Stringing words together Swallowing syllables Mumbling
Volume	Project Voice: ✓ Depending on size of room and group, ensure that you're also heard in the back of the room	<pre>Yelling (that's exhausting):</pre>

	Practice	Avoid
Inflection - change in pitch or volume	 ✓ Use inflection to stress important words ✓ For key messages, increase pitch or volume 	Sing-song inflectionExtreme changes in inflection throughout the presentation
Verbal Mannerisms	 ✓ Try pausing instead of using filler words ✓ Organize information into chunks ✓ Keep sentences short 	Fill words: * Um, ah * Repetitive words in every sentence o like o actually o right o yea
Word Choice	Use correct English: ✓ For sexual/health education, always use accurate body and medical terms	SlangTechnical jargonInappropriate or childish terms
Grammar	Use correct grammar	Incorrect grammarExcessive abbreviations
Pacing	Pace of presentation: ✓ Use a pace that people can follow (can ask audience for feedback to adjust) ✓ Use short pauses or rhetorical questions to adjust pace	Too slow (people can drift off)Too quick (you can lose people)
Preparation	 ✓ Familiarize yourself with the material as much as possible ✓ Map out your presentation in advance ✓ Be prepared to answer questions ✓ Ensure that any visual aids and equipment are properly working, accessible, and located where they are needed 	 Not becoming familiar with material Not having a plan for presentation Not having visuals and/or props prepared in advance
Comfort with content	 ✓ Have adequate knowledge of content/material ✓ Ability to answer difficult or uncomfortable questions ✓ Overall comfort with material and topics 	 Lack of knowledge, preparedness Stumbling over sensitive issues Unclear or confused statements