

Know More, Do More: Recognizing and Responding to Stalking
and
Stalking 2.0: The Use of Technology to Stalk

Presenter: Dana Fleitman, MA, EdHD, Training and Awareness Specialist,
AEquitas Stalking Prevention, Awareness, and Resource Center (SPARC)

Resources for Professionals:

- Stalking Harassment, Assessment and Risk Profile \(SHARP\)
Risk assessment tool for stalking
- Documentation Log
To help track stalking incidents
- Safety Planning Strategies
- Stalking Response Checklist for DV/SA Organizations
A checklist to help assess your agency's response to stalking
- Training Modules for Public Awareness
Scripted workshops and guidance for community educators, including You discussion guides
- Archive of Past Webinars
Including going through the SHARP Assessment and a deeper dive on SA and stalking
- Print "Understanding Stalking" Brochures and Posters Available to Order
Free brochures in English and Spanish
- Victim Connect, Privacy Resources, and other Helplines
For referrals for stalking victims

For More on the Use of Technology to Stalk:

- NNEDV Safety Net Project
App and online resources on the use of technology in intimate partner violence
- IACP Cyber Security Center
Information and guidance for law enforcement investigating crimes that use technology
- Search.org
A resource for law enforcement to find the appropriate portals and contacts for subpoenas etc.

To Request Further Training and/or Assistance:

- AEquitas
24/7 technical assistance for prosecutors
- SPARC Training Request Form
We are funded to provide training to all current and potential OVW grantees. We are happy to provide additional training for specialized disciplines.

BWIAH Provider Meeting participants can request a copy of the Stalking 2.0: Use of Technology to Stalk presentation slides by contacting your BWIAH Program Manager. These slides and recording are not publicly available at the request of the presenter organization.